Complaint Handling Statement

Sometimes things can go wrong, so we have produced this Complaint Handling Statement to show what will happen if you have cause to complain to us.

Our Process

All our staff are trained to offer you the best possible customer service and will do their utmost to help you. If they need to involve their manager, they will do so to ensure the matter is resolved as quickly and easily as possible.

As part of resolving your complaint, we will offer you an explanation and an apology. We will also take remedial action and may award you a gesture of goodwill in appropriate circumstances.

Step 1 – Initial Contact (Day 1)

When you speak to us with a problem, our staff will attempt to resolve matters there and then.

If you email or write to us, we aim to resolve matters within 2 working days. We may call you to do this in order to resolve the complaint quickly.

If we've been unable to agree a satisfactory resolution with you, we will move your complaint to the next step.

Step 2 – Complaints Team (Day 1 – 10)

We'll spend the next 9 days trying to find a resolution for you. During this time, the Head of Region for your area will be involved every day and an independent reviewer will ensure all options have been considered to resolve your complaint as quickly and effectively as possible.

If we still cannot resolve your complaint fully or have not agreed a form of resolution within 10 days, then we will escalate your complaint to the next step.

Step 3 – Executive Complaints Team (Day 10 – 31)

If the complaint is still unresolved, we will pass the complaint to our Executive Complaints Team. This is a specialist team who will spend time to look into your complaint and see if there's something they can do to help find a resolution that the complaints team have not done so far.

Our Executive Complaints Team will hold the complaint until it has been open for 31 days and liaise with senior management within your region to help resolve the complaint.

Step 4 – Senior Management Review (Day 31+)

At day 31, a senior manager within our Customer Contact Centre or a relevant Head of Business Area will take on your complaint to investigate. They will make sure the correct processes have been followed so far and work with you to find a suitable resolution.

These are the most senior members of staff within the relevant business area and will work with you and other internal contacts to find a way to resolve your complaint. This is the last internal stage of the complaints handling process.

Step 5 – 'Deadlock' – The Energy Supply Ombudsman (8 weeks)

If we cannot agree a suitable resolution within 8 weeks, or if all options have been exhausted prior to the 8 week point, your complaint can be deadlocked. Please see below for details on how you can contact the Energy Supply Ombudsman.

* All timescales are expected to be discussed and agreed with customers and therefore may vary depending on circumstances.

The Energy Supply Ombudsman

If you remain unhappy after receiving the response from the independent reviewer or the relevant Head of Business, you can ask us to 'deadlock' your complaint. This means we will send you a letter which states we have been unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction. Once you receive a deadlock letter, you can contact the Ombudsman Services: Energy.

You can contact the Ombudsman Services: Energy without a deadlock letter, however they may refer you back to us if they believe you have not allowed sufficient time to resolve your complaint. You can also contact them, if your complaint has not been resolved and 8 weeks have elapsed since you registered your complaint.

The Ombudsman will carry out an independent investigation on your behalf. Any decision the Ombudsman makes will be binding on us, but not on you.

As part of resolving your complaint, the Ombudsman may ask us to make an apology or give an explanation. They can also ask us to take remedial action and may require us to award compensation in appropriate circumstances.
