3.8 Overview of Procurement and Dispatch processes

3.8.1 The high-level end to end procurement process from pre-qualification to bidding that takes place on our Flexibility Market Platform is shown in figure 1.

3.8.2 The activities listed below and shown in figure 1, must be completed by Providers before the bidding window opens:

- Electron Connect registration (where applicable);
- Pre-qualification;
- Awarded an Overarching Agreement (this Agreement);
- Registered relevant assets on the Electron Connect Platform (where applicable); and
- After signing the Overarching Agreement, all Providers should complete technical onboarding to Flexible Power. If the Provider does not yet have suitable IT systems or operational assets, onboarding may be deferred until a more suitable appropriate time. The Company reserves the right not to dispatch services, or permit participation in short term markets, until onboarding is completed. A high-level overview of the technical onboarding process is described in annex 1 and a comprehensive “Flexible Power provider user guide” of the process can be found in the SSEN Flexibility Services Document Library under “service documentation”.

3.8.3 For bidding rounds, the Company will publish CMZs with network needs in line with annex 2.

3.8.4 The bidding process, as described in annex 2 of these Service Terms.

3.9 Service Specific Acknowledgements

3.9.1 The Provider hereby acknowledges that:

- a) The provision of services pursuant to this agreement and the participation in flexibility services programme is voluntary, except where the Provider has committed their availability to provide services and;
- b) The Company may request the Provider to tender for the flexibility services in accordance with this agreement. Save as specifically set out in this agreement, the Company does not guarantee by entering into this agreement that it will require any flexibility services, nor does it commit to purchasing any particular level of flexibility services. The Company may not issue tenders for flexibility services, nor instructions for utilisation. The volume of flexibility services purchased under this agreement may exceed or fall below prior estimations or anticipated usage, in which event the Company shall not be liable for any resultant cost, expense, loss or damage incurred or suffered by the Provider or any third party. The Provider shall not have an exclusive position in respect of the provision of flexibility services and the Company is free to have others provide the flexibility services, or to provide itself the flexibility services or other similar services in relation to management of constraints on the electricity network.
- c) Nothing in this agreement shall prevent any party from applying for injunctive/interdict or other provisional, interim, emergency or equitable relief as is required to avoid irreparable damage to person, property, business or reputation.
- d) The Overarching Agreement award does not guarantee that any flexibility services will be required by the Company or commit the Company to requiring any, or any particular level of such flexibility services.

3.10 Variation to Service Windows

3.10.1 The Company will not vary an Accepted Availability Window but may in some circumstances request additional availability, within the timescales stated in the section 3.2 - generic service parameters.

3.10.2 Emergency Flex: this is an opt-in service which does not require a tender for services. If the Provider wishes to opt into Emergency Flex it should do so by the deadline stipulated for accepting the Terms and Conditions of the overarching agreement, by indicating whether or not they're willing to participate in Emergency Flex. The Emergency Flexibility Service has been designed as a last resort service. In such a scenario, the Company would expect to procure services from the Provider. It should be considered as a bespoke payment of an Operational Utilisation with a 15-minute notification window. When the Company requires the service, the Provider may receive a utilisation instruction to provide Emergency Flex services. There is no obligation to provide Emergency Flex as a result of this Utilisation Instruction until the instruction is accepted by the Provider. Payment for Emergency Flex is equivalent to the level of Interruption Incentive Scheme (IIS) payment for the solutions delivered by the domestic MPAN & non-provider owned sites. The level of IIS payment per week for Emergency Flex services delivered by the domestic MPAN & non-provider owned sites, is derived by applying 12.5% to the weekly Customer Interruption costs.

4. Charges and Calculation of charges

4.1 Charges

4.1.1 Availability and Utilisation Fees for any Service which a Provider is participating shall be set out in the Call Off Contracts and such Call Off Contracts shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Service Terms.

4.2 Calculation of charges

4.2.1 There are two types of flexibility services payments: Utilisation Payments and Availability Payments. The application of the payment type depends on the flexibility service product being delivered.

4.2.2 The latest version of the Standardised DNO Settlement Methodology is published under “service documentation” at the SSEN Flexibility Services Document Library.

4.3 Utilisation Payments

4.3.1 Utilisation Payments are made when a Utilisation Instruction is issued by the Company.

4.3.2 Utilisation Payments are considered in terms of:

- for every metered time period, energy (MWh) delivered supplied by the Provider and multiplied by the Utilisation Fee (£/MWh); or 4.3.3 Where the Provider has not fully met the Utilisation Instruction, an additional performance calculation is applied to the utilisation payments. The Monthly Utilisation Performance Factor determines how much delivery is eligible for payment.

4.3.4 The Utilisation Payment made for under-performing periods will be as calculated in the latest version of the Standardised DNO Settlement Methodology referenced in paragraph 4.2.2.

4.4 Availability Payments

4.4.1 Where availability is applicable to a Flexibility Service, payments are paid for every Accepted Availability Window in respect of the DER. Availability Payments are subject to a Monthly Utilisation Performance factor.

4.4.2 Availability is determined by:

- for every metered time period, the Agreed Availability Capacity (MW) multiplied by the Availability Fee (£/MW/h).

4.4.3 Where a Provider declares Unavailability or was not available at time of delivery, then no Availability Payment will be made for that Metered Time Period.

4.4.4 Availability performance is calculated monthly and Availability Payments are reduced to match the capacity delivered should the delivered capacity be lower than the Agreed Availability Capacity. In order to determine the reduction, the Provider’s calculated Monthly Utilisation Performance Factor is applied to the Availability Payment.

4.4.5 The detailed Availability Payment calculations are described in the latest version of the Standardised DNO Settlement Methodology referenced in paragraph 4.2.2.

4.5 Reduction of Charges

4.5.1 The Company shall report the Provider's performance for each half-hour of the service window and shall calculate the appropriate fees according to the performance achieved.

4.5.2 Where there is no net change in export/import power from the baseline in any half hour period of the service event, no Utilisation or Availability Payment will be due for that period. The Provider should include the reason for the failure in the Performance Report.

4.5.3 No Utilisation Payment will be due for periods outside of the instructed Start and Stop Times.

4.5.4 Where applicable, if the Provider has given Unavailability Notification for an agreed service window and the Company has elected to cancel the service as a result, the Availability Payment shall not be payable for that service window.

4.5.5 If the Provider has given notice of capacity reduction for an agreed service window and the Company has elected to continue with the service, the Availability Payment shall be payable based upon the remaining capacity available.

4.6 Payment calculation parameter values

4.6.1 The parameter values that are used in payment calculations are described in latest version of the Standardised DNO Settlement Methodology referenced in paragraph 4.2.2 and shown in table 2 below:

Parameter	Scheduled Utilisation	Scheduled Availability + Operational Utilisation	Variable Availability + Operational Utilisation (both Week Ahead and Day Ahead notifications)	Operational Utilisation
Utilisation Grace Factor	5%	5%	5%	10%
Availability Grace Factor	N/A	5%	5%	N/A
Performance Multiplier	3	3	3	2

Following resolution or determination of any dispute, the earnings statement shall be updated accordingly.
 - 5.1.4 If no query is raised on the earnings statement within the fourteen (14) day window the statement is assumed to be correct. On the 15th, Flexible Power will automatically generate a final Statement which can be downloaded for financial records or invoice preparation as applicable.
- 5.2 If the Provider has agreed to Self-Billing, the statement will be used by the Company to generate a Self-Billing invoice.

5.3 Self-billing

If the Provider has agreed to self-billing, the Company agrees:

- 5.3.1 To issue self-billed invoices for all supplies made to them by the Provider for the duration of this contract.

5.4.2 The Provider agrees that each invoice issued or accepted by it will include details of, as regards the Flexibility Services to which the invoice relates:

- The Purchase Order number as provided by the Company;
- the date on and time at which the Flexibility Services were provided;
- the relevant Availability Payment details (if any); and
- the relevant Utilisation Payment details (if any).

5.4.3 Invoices are submitted by the Provider to the Company through the Tradex electronic invoicing platform supported by Causeway Technologies Limited (<https://www.causeway.com/sse-tradex-registration>).

5.4.4 The Provider agrees that, should it opt for paid features in the Tradex electronic invoicing platform, those costs associated with its use are to be borne by it and not passed on to the Company in any way whatsoever.

5.4.5 If in the Company's opinion the Tradex electronic invoicing platform has become an inadequate means for the Provider to submit its invoices, the Company may require the Provider to submit its invoices through a reasonable alternative means which the Company shall specify by providing notice in writing to the Provider.

- 8.3.1 Unless agreed otherwise, the Company shall contact Providers by email and / or telephone in accordance with the notice periods in section 3.2 - generic service parameters to request availability (an "Availability Request") per Dispatch Group.
- 8.3.2 Providers shall confirm related operating parameters as follows:
- Zone Name;
 - Provider Name;
 - Dispatch Group;
 - Accepted Availability Windows, Agreed Availability Capacity and Response Direction.
 - Operating parameters (Minimum Utilisation Period, Maximum Utilisation Period, Weekly Limit, baseline method and values if applicable).
- 8.3.3 Unless agreed otherwise, Providers shall respond by email to the Availability Request within the timescales stated in section 3.2 - generic service parameters.
- 8.3.4 The Provider may decline an Availability Request or propose reduced capacity/changes to operational parameters. If changes to the request are agreed, the Company will re-issue the Availability Request for formal acceptance.
- 8.3.5 By accepting an Availability Request, the Provider is committing to be ready to provide the Agreed Availability Capacity throughout the Accepted Availability Window, if instructed to do so by the Company.
- 8.3.6 If there is no reply to an Availability Request within the timescales in section 3.2 – generic service parameters, the Company shall deem the Provider to be unavailable for the requested Availability Windows.

8.4 Utilisation Instructions: VAOU (DA), VAOU (WA), SAOU (DA), SU, OU

- 8.4.1 The Company may, for an Accepted Availability Window (for VAOU (DA), VAOU (WA) and SAOU (DA) or other period of time (for OU, SU and Emergency Flex) in respect of a Dispatch Group which has not been notified or otherwise deemed unavailable, issue a notice (a "Utilisation Instruction") in line with annex 4, which includes:
- Zone Name;
 - Provider Name;
 - Dispatch Group;
 - Agreed Availability Capacity to be Utilised and Response Direction;
 - Start Time and / or Stop Time

8.4.2 The Company may issue an individual Utilisation Instruction or a set of instructions known as a Utilisation Schedule to the Provider.

8.4.3 The Provider shall not deliver any Flexibility Services unless they have received an instruction from the Company via Flexible Power or directly from the Control Room.

8.5 Unavailability Notification

8.5.1 If at any time, a Provider becomes aware that a Dispatch Group will be unavailable or its capacity reduced during an accepted availability window and/or any other period of time, then it shall as soon as reasonably practicable, contact the Company's Flexibility dispatch desk by phone or email of any period where Agreed Availability Capacity will be unavailable or reduced. The Provider shall complete an Unavailability Notification in line with annex 4, setting out the duration of the unavailability/reduction and the reason.

8.5.2 Where the notice is given by phone, a confirmatory email shall be sent by the Provider to the Company within 24 hours.

8.5.3 The Providers shall notify the Company of the following:

- Provider Name
- Flexible Power ID of unavailable Meterable Unit or Dispatch Group
- Datetime Unavailable from
- Datetime Unavailable to
- Remaining capacity during these times (if applicable)

8.5.4 Upon receipt of an Unavailability Notification, the Company may at its discretion:

- Elect to continue with affected service(s) at reduced capacity.
- Elect to cancel service(s).

8.5.5 The Company's decision will be communicated to the Provider as soon as reasonably practicable; however, should that not be before an accepted availability window or start instruction, the Provider shall be ready to deliver (or shall continue to deliver) the service at the remaining capacity where applicable.

8.6 Signal and Control Requirements

- 8.6.1 Unless agreed otherwise, metering data should be submitted via the Flexible Power API continuously and close to real time at minute (power) or half-hourly (energy) granularity. The Provider also has the option to submit metering data in batches (in line with figure 2) via API or csv upload. Metering data must be in the Flexible Power platform by the 15th of the subsequent month for billing.
- 8.6.2 The Company shall send signals to the Provider via Flexible Power API as required for the flexibility product being dispatched, as required for the flexibility product being dispatched and as detailed in the Flexible Power provider user guide which can be found in the SSEN Flexibility Services Document Library under “service documentation”.
- 8.6.3 The Provider shall send the following data to the Company via the Flexible Power API:
- Power (minute) or Energy (half hour) metering, per Meterable Unit.
 - Emergency stop signal, per Meterable Unit.

9. Performance Monitoring

Performance against instructions given is determined automatically by the Flexible Power portal using pre-determined baseline data and actual metering data uploaded by Providers.

9.1 Metering Standards

- 9.1.1 For asset point metering, the Provider will ensure compliance with the following metering standards set out within the most recent published relevant balancing and settlement code of practice eleven: code of practice for the metering of balancing services assets for settlement purposes:
- The metering ‘accuracy requirements’.
 - The asset meter calibration test certification’.
 - ‘the limits of error’.
 - The ‘sealing’ requirements.
- 9.1.2 For Boundary Point Metering, the Provider should be compliant with balancing and settlement codes of practice 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 10 as applicable.
- 9.1.3 If requested by the Company, the Provider shall provide evidence of compliance with the above standards. This may be in the form of certification, photo, or written confirmation.

9.2 Baseline for measuring delivery

- 9.2.1 The baseline is used by the Company to forecast absolute power values for the week ahead, and after each event by the Flexible Power billing system to calculate utilisation and performance.
- 9.2.2 A baseline must be agreed by email a month ahead of dispatch and be recorded in Flexible Power by the Company, no later than the Wednesday preceding an operational week.

9.2.3 The baselining method and any fixed values or profiles shall be agreed between the Company and the Provider post Contract Award and ahead of any service provision.

9.2.4 If requested, Providers must provide the methodology used for determining nominated baseline values and be able to demonstrate the method's accuracy by comparison with real data.

9.2.5 The supported baseline methods are:

- Nominated Baseline - this can be a fixed power value (kW), or a representative week time-series of average power (kW) values, at minute or half-hourly granularity.
- Historical Baseline - an averaged historical baseline value (kW) calculated month by month basis by taking power readings between 3pm and 8pm (Monday to Friday) over a period of the first three (3) weeks of the previous month.

9.3 Testing and Monitoring

9.3.1 Testing may be undertaken to confirm the Provider's ability to deliver the services described for this agreement to take place. The Company shall be entitled to request data from the Provider evidencing the delivery of flexibility which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Delivery will be verified by the Company using network monitoring and reporting systems.

9.3.2 Testing will be organised no more than once a year for a time and duration acceptable for both the Company and Provider to be agreed in advance. Testing will be planned to minimise impact to the Provider's normal operations.

9.3.3 The Company retains the right at its own discretion to refrain from issuing Availability Requests or utilisation instructions to the Provider until necessary testing has been concluded.

9.3.4 The Company shall be entitled to request specific technical or operational information during the course of the contract in order to understand the effect of services provided on the distribution network, and the Provider shall not unreasonably withhold such information.

9.3.5 The Company may repeat testing for the following reasons:

- Where test results are unsatisfactory or inconclusive;
- following a service or communications failure, or;
- on an annual basis.

9.3.6 Should the Company identify a failure affecting the API communications the Company shall notify the Providers nominated person as detailed in main contract as soon as practical to resolve the failure and if necessary, retrieve any missing data.

9.4 Service Meter

9.4.1 Minute by minute and half hourly data will be accepted by the Company from the Provider for settlement purposes. Certain products rely on minute-by-minute metering granularity for accurate performance monitoring and settlement. Where an alternative to minute-by-minute granularity is provided the data may be disaggregated. As such, this could result in performance monitoring and calculation inaccuracies.

9.5 Service Failure

9.5.1 Means where, in respect of a Dispatch Group within a zone:

- a) The Provider has achieved less than 75% delivered capacity of the Utilisation Instructions in any billing month; or
- b) the Provider has issued unavailability notices, or the Company deems services as unavailable for 25% of Accepted Availability Windows or Agreed Availability Capacity in a billing month.

9.5.2 Service Failure with respect to termination is defined as:

- a) The Provider has achieved less than 50% of the accepted Utilisation Instructions across different areas representing 10% or more of the Zones they have Utilisation Instructions for, for more than three months and does not engage in rectification activity as listed in 8.2 of the General Terms and Conditions; or
- b) The Provider fails to respond to any Availability Request (in the affirmative or the negative) for more than three months and continues to participate in tender activities as outlined in annex 2.

9.6 Auditing

9.6.1 The Company shall be entitled to request specific technical or operational information during the course of the overarching agreement in order to understand the effect of the services provided on the distribution network, and the Provider shall not unreasonably withhold such information.

9.6.2 The Company shall provide a minimum of 10 days' notice of any proposed visit to the Provider's site/facilities. The Provider shall not unreasonably withhold permission for the Company to visit the Provider's site/facilities, where they are authorised to grant such permission and have ownership or access rights to such sites/facilities.

10. Data Protection

10.1 If at any point during the term, either party considers that one party is acting as processor on behalf of the other, then the parties shall promptly meet to negotiate in good faith a separate data processing agreement to cover the matters required by the data protection law.

11. Details of Provider and Special Conditions

11.1 Any variations to the General Terms and Conditions are detailed at the start of this overarching agreement.

ANNEX 1: TECHNICAL ONBOARDING

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Providers who have signed up an Overarching Agreement with SSEN will be contacted to begin the technical onboarding process, including Flexible Power onboarding. If the FSP does not yet have an IT system or any operational assets, onboarding may be deferred until a more appropriate time. Technical onboarding must be completed before any services are dispatched or assets allowed to participate in short-term markets.
- 1.2 Flexible Power is used by the Company for activities after market closure, including managing baselines, availability, scheduling, dispatch, performance reporting and self-bill calculations (Statement/Invoice generation).

2. Technical Onboarding process

- 2.1 The high-level technical onboarding process is as follows:

- 2.2 The “Flexible Power provider user guide” can be found in the SSEN Flexibility Services Document Library under the “service documentation” dropdown. It will guide Providers through the process of using the platform and getting onboarded.

ANNEX 2: AUCTION/ TENDER/BIDDING GUIDELINES

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This annex 2 outlines the two ways we will accept bids. The description in section 2 covers bid acceptance using the existing “Tender for Services via csv” approach, whilst section 3 describes bid acceptance using our Flexibility Market Platform. We will inform Providers of our option being used prior to each bid commencement. Only one method will be used per bidding round and no bids submitted via the other route will be accepted.

2. Tender for Services via CSV

- 2.1 For all services, the Company will open a ‘Tender for Services’ by email for Providers who are parties to this Overarching Agreement in advance of the services being required. When the tender for services is announced, the Company will make available information about the services required, the period over which the services will be required (known as the “Call Off Contract Period”), the capacity of services required in each zone over the call off contract period and the expected availability/utilisation of each service in each zone. A template for the tender for services document is included in annex 4.
- 2.2 The Provider may then respond by email with a bid offer (known as a ‘Call Off Bid’) for any services it would like to participate in by the deadline specified in the tender for services. The Provider must respond using the standard Call Off Bid submission form in line with annex 4 in csv or excel format. The email must be sent to flexibilityprocurement@sse.com before the stated close time to be considered a valid bid.
- 2.3 The Company will then decide which bid offer to accept and announce the bid acceptance decision(s) by email to the relevant Providers. The bid acceptance decision will be made by the Company based on the bid pricing and sensitivity/effectiveness analysis. Where two bids are priced identically, the Company may base its decision on secondary considerations such as flex assure membership, reliability and carbon intensity.
- 2.4 Where applicable, the bid acceptance decision will also detail the availability for services that the Company commits to purchasing from the Provider over the call off contract period.
- 2.5 Once the bid has been accepted by the Company, the details provided by the Provider in its Call Off Bid will form the basis of the accepted agreement between the Provider and the Company.

3. Flexibility Market Platform

- 3.1 For all services procured on the Flexibility Market Platform, the Company will prepare tender requirements and publish these via the platform.
- 3.2 Each CMZ will have an individual market on the platform, and Providers who meet all the technical and commercial qualification criteria will be able to participate. When the auction is announced, the Flexibility Market Platform will include information about the services required, the contract start date and the contract end date, the estimated capacity required in each CMZ over the contract period and the service window in each zone.

- 3.3 The Provider may then make offers for each market they wish. To be a valid offer, it must be submitted in Electron Connect before the published deadline and be submitted to the Flexibility Market Platform with instant confirmation on the platform stating, “file uploaded successfully”.
- 3.4 To ensure that the Provider submits a valid bid, the Provider must ensure that the following parameters are included in the bid and are as intended before submission is made:
- flexibility volumes in MW;
 - Availability Fee (where required) (£/MW/h);
 - Utilisation Fee;
- 3.4.1 The platform will not allow submission without this information. It is the responsibility of the Provider to ensure the information is correct, fully populated and applied to the right locations and assets.
- 3.5 The decision on which bids to accept is made by generating a stack for each asset using the market platform algorithm. A single price stack is generated with bids from all Provider organisations for the entire contract length. The methodology of building the price stack is described in the ‘Assessment of Bids in SSEN’ document published in our SSEN Flexibility Services Document Library under the ‘Service Documentation’ dropdown.
- 3.6 The platform generates and notifies the bid acceptance decision(s) by email to the relevant Providers. Once the offer has been accepted, the details provided by the Provider in its bid template will form the basis of the accepted agreement between the Provider and the Company.

ANNEX 3: DISPATCH PRINCIPLES

1. Company Flexibility Management System Details

- 1.1 These technical requirements together with the service terms and associated documents will apply to Providers adopting Flexible Power dispatch using API or email and Providers adopting the manual approach.
- 1.2 For information, the Company's Flexible Power User Guide can be viewed in the Flexibility Services Document Library

2. Dispatch Principles

- 2.1 The DER details registered on Electron Connect by the Provider and specified in any Call Off Bid (defined in annex 2) from the Provider must be accurate and in accordance with the terms of this Overarching Agreement. As outlined in the Service Terms, the Company will rely on the DER details provided by the Provider when requesting Availability or instructing Services pursuant to this Overarching Agreement.
- 2.2 In post-fault scenarios, Providers will be given access to the electricity distribution network to export or import electricity under conditions which would normally not be permitted and result in isolation from the network. This access is given by the Company only for the duration of this Overarching Agreement and as instructed by the Company under this Overarching Agreement and will cease upon termination or expiry of the Overarching Agreement.
- 2.3 The following criteria will be used by the Company before issuing Availability Requests or Utilisation Instructions to determine which Provider will be used. The Company shall retain, at its sole discretion, the right to issue a Call Off Contract to a Provider and may use other means to manage constraints on the electricity network.
- 2.4 Dispatch criteria may include some of, and/or of the following:
 - Technical suitability for the specific constraint scenario;
 - Pricing – to select optimal economic solution for the Company's stakeholders and customers (£/MWh);
 - Carbon intensity – measure of how many grams of carbon dioxide (CO₂) are released to produce a kilowatt hour (kWh) of energy required for the service;
 - Reliability of asset – the ability of the DER to perform under certain conditions over a specified period without service failure;
 - Any known Unavailability or reduced capacity; and
 - Management of network risk.
- 2.5 The complete dispatch criteria applied can be found in the Operational Decision Making (ODM) document which is reviewed annually. The latest version of the ODM is published under "service documentation" at the SSEN Flexibility Services Document Library: Flexibility Services Document Library - SSEN
